Please submit the following information, along with dates and/or high school year, (i.e. 9th, 10th, 11th, 12th) on a separate sheet of paper(s), in the order listed below. You may use your Activity Sheet/Resume; however, it must be formatted using the following headlines otherwise it may not be considered. If you do not answer the questions below, your application may not be considered.

1. White Meadow Lake Volunteering & Community Service. A minimum of 8 hours* of WML Volunteering & Community service is a mandatory requirement to apply. Applicants who have not met this requirement in their academic career, will not be considered.
 - A) White Meadow Lake Community Volunteering & Community Service (minimum of 8 hours*): Examples of volunteer hours or service include, but not limited to: Volunteering at a Women's Club or other WML POA Sponsored Event or Program, such as Fall Festival, Halloween or Spring Parties, Egg Hunt, Festival Days, or as part of a local Boy/Girl Scout WML Community Service Project, etc. A letter on official WML Letterhead or Sponsoring Organization must be included confirming hours & dates volunteered.
 - B) White Meadow Lake Community Participation - Enrollment or Participation on WML Swim Team, Camp or Preschool, participating in Festival Days events, Assisting Seniors, Babysitting, etc. Please include dates of participation.
2. Community Activities/Volunteer & Dates outside White Meadow Lake. Please include specific dates/hours volunteered.
3. Academic & Athletic Awards/Honors
4. Extra-Curricular Activities
 - a. Clubs
 - b. Sports
 - c. Hobbies or Special Interest-Activities

Minimum Mandatory WML Volunteer hours must be met by application deadline.

5. Work Experience. Please include number of hours worked.
6. How will this scholarship benefit you? Is there additional information you would like us to know about you or any special circumstances you would like us to be aware of?
7. Personal Response. Choose only one (1) of the following six topics below to write about (250-400 words)
 - a. Submit an autobiographical essay that includes information about your academic and personal interests, characteristics you possess that you consider a strength that will help you achieve success in college. This can include relationships with teachers, employers, and peers who have influenced your life as well as role models you look to for guidance and inspiration.
 - b. Describe a personal accomplishment which you are particularly proud of and explain why.
 - c. To be a successful college student, you must be able to make good decisions about health and personal responsibility. Provide examples of physical, intellectual and emotional experiences that helped you grow.
 - d. Describe how you have organized, motivated, guided or directed others and give specific examples of your most significant leadership activities in your community and school. Provide examples that show a theme of continuing leadership, not just brief, single experiences.
 - e. Identify significant personal difficulties, challenges or disadvantages you have faced. Describe in detail how you overcame the obstacle(s), including how you made the most of the opportunities, resources and support available to you from your community, school and family to help you in overcoming them. Your obstacle(s) may be economic, emotional, social, physical or geographic.
 - f. Describe one or two of the most impactful (impact on the community and others) unpaid volunteer activities you have participated in by the date of your application. Community service projects may end after the application deadline as long as you have started the community service prior to the application deadline. The activities should illustrate your ongoing commitment to community service, not brief or one-time experiences. Include name/title of community service, your specific duties/responsibilities and specific accomplishments or results achieved.
